Grace Against the Clock by Julie A. Hyzy (PB HYZY, J.)

The Call of Angels by James T. Durkin (FIC DURKIN, J.)

Lincoln in the Bardo by George Saunders (FIC SAUNDERS. G.)

President Lincoln's beloved eleven-year-old son, Willie, lies upstairs in the White House, gravely ill. In a matter of days, despite predictions of a recovery, Willie dies and is laid to rest in a Georgetown cemetery. From that seed of historical truth, George Saunders spins a story of familial love and loss that breaks free of its historical framework into a supernatural realm both hilarious and terrifying. Willie Lincoln finds himself in a strange purgatory where ghosts mingle, gripe, commiserate, quarrel, and enact bizarre acts of penance. Within this transitional state -- called, in the Tibetan tradition, the bardo -- a monumental struggle erupts over young Willie's soul.

Reenee on the Run by Lydia Ponczak (MYST PONCZAK, L.)

Lydia Ponczak is a resident of Oak Forest, IL. Ponczak was a elementary school teacher for the Chicago District Schools, and is now in her retirement. After retirement, most people don't do a lot of work, and like to relax more. Ponczak, however, pushed herself, and became a well accomplished author, and she directs and hosts a community television show.

Fahrenheit 451 by Ray Bradbury (FIC BRADBURY, R.)

The House on Mango Street by Sandra Cisneros (FIC CISNEROS, S.)

Testimony by Scott Turow (FIC TUROW, S.)
