B. Discussion of Public Act 099-0604

Zach presented information regarding House Bill 4379, “Local Government Travel Expenses,” which will take effect January 1, 2017. The Acorn Public Library District’s Policy 5.11, “Professional Growth and Development” touches upon many of these items in this Public Act, but may require slight modifications/amendments through resolution to comply with this new act.

In the future, there will be forms to fill out and submit for approval by officers and employees. Zach will put information together for the next Trustee board meeting.

4. Old Business

A. Audit of Secretary’s Records

Brad Duff-Hudkins and Jim Richmond conducted the annual audit for July 2015 to June 2016. All minutes were found to be in order and there were no recommendations made.

B. Discussion and Consideration of East side landscaping work

Zach and the Board discussed the removal of the stairs and putting in soil and plants. A proposal for the removal and disposal of concrete and railings was presented by Frazier Concrete, Inc. Also, a proposal was presented from American Lawn for the landscaping of the area. The Board requested a sketch of the proposals, which Zach will have for review at the September meeting.

C. Update on Strategic Planning

Zach updated the board on progress using the Appreciative Inquiry plan for two employees who resigned. He stated that the employees appreciated being asked their opinions regarding their positions.

D. Update on IMET Liquidating Trust

Nothing new to report.

5. Correspondence – None

6. Open Forum

Zach informed the Board that the Community Awareness Fair will be on October 1, 2016, at the Oak Forest High School from 10AM – 3PM. It was suggested that the Acorn Library have a table to include the Friends of the Acorn Library.

Zach reported that a patron requested that the critically acclaimed movie, “Shame,” directed by Steve McQueen, be removed from the Acorn Library. In accordance with Library policy and its position on intellectual freedom, the movie will not be removed from the collection.
