

Christmas at Rose Hill Farm: An Amish Love Story

Suzanne Woods
Fisher
(Fic - Fisher S)

“Bess Riel is preparing Rose Hill Farm for her Christmas wedding, but her gown isn’t who she thought it would be. Billy Lapp is far away from his Amish roots working as a rose rustler for Penn State and wants nothing to do with Stoney Ridge, his family, or Bess. And that suits Bess just fine. Why should she think twice about a man who left without a word, without explanation? It’s time she moved on with her life, and that meant saying “yes” to Amos Lapp, Billy’s Cousin and Best Friend. But as Bess and Amos’s wedding day draws near, her emotions tangle into a tight knot. She loves Amos. Yet she can’t forget Billy”

“Lucas Shetler lives in a strict Old Order Amish district. His community hasn’t embraced the technology common in other Amish communities, so they live without phones and keep food refrigerated with ice blocks. Lucas’s family is intent on staying detached from the outside world. Natalie Collins is the furthest from Amish one can be. She’s grown up with any convenience she could want but is carrying a past of pain and broken relationships with her family. She’s pursuing a career in veterinary medicine, and falling in love with Lucas isn’t in the plan. As Natalie and Lucas start to reckon with a future that neither expected, they encounter family opposition from all sides. As the people they love try to force their own plans onto the couple, Lucas and Natalie realize how difficult it will be to stay true to themselves and one another”
